

A_Spanish_Catalog

Books Aloud Inc
Bibliography Report

4/17/2018 @ 3:09pm

Page 1

---

S-121

SPYRI, JOHANNA. HEIDI (A/F SPA 07). 1977. READ By: Olga de la Serna. A classic for children about a little girl and her grandfather in Switzerland.

S-122

WILDE, OSCAR. CUENTOS : (A/F SPA 02). 1982. READ BY: Emma Vargo. Stories Are: El Ruisenor y La Rosa, El Principe Feliz, El Amigo Fiel, El Gigante Egoista, El Joven Rey, El Cumpleanos de la Infanta.

S-125

BACH, RICHARD. JUAN SALVADOR GAVIOTA : (A/F SPA 02). 1979. READ BY: Jan Guffey. A morality tale about seeking a higher purpose in life, Jonathan Livingston Seagull is not just concerned about gathering food but is more interested in the facts flight even though it means being outcast by the flock. Jonathan loves to fly-higher, faster, and farther than any other bird. His aerial experiments lead him to a delightful series of adventures which teach him many things about flying and about freedom.

S-135

BRADBURY, RAY. FAHRENHEIT 451 (A/F SPA 07). Read By:. A social satire set in the future in a time when owning or reading a book is a crime. The fireman hero becomes a fugitive when he yields to temptation.

S-141

BRISTOW, GWEN. CALICO PALACE (A/F SPA 20). 1985. READ BY: Emma Vargo. Historical novel about the "FORTY EIGHTERS" who began the transformation of San Francisco from a frontier shanty town into one of the most brilliant cities in the world.

S-143

HEYERDAHL, THOR. KON-TIKI : (A/F SPA 08). Believing the Polynesian Islands were inhabited by Peruvian sailors, Thor Heyerdahl builds a raft of exactly the same materials and heads out across the Pacific from Peru. With a crew of six, they catch their own food and discover many interesting things about sea life.

A_Spanish_Catalog

S-144

CHRISTIE, AGATHA. MURDER ON THE ORIENT EXPRESS : (A/F SPA 06).
A mysterious death on the fabled Orient Express leads to many suspects and the interesting solution of the murder by Detective Hercule Poirot.

S-145

TWAIN, MARK. ADVENTURES OF TOM SAWYER : (J/F SPA 08). 1983.
READ BY: Emma Varga. Classic story of the adventurous boyhood of a character on the Mississippi River at Hannibal, Missouri.

S-146

LA SANTA BIBLIA. NEW TESTAMENT (SPANISH 16). New Testament in Spanish.

Books Aloud Inc
Bibliography Report

4/17/2018 @ 3:09pm

Page 2

---

S-147

KRANZ, JUDITH. LA HIJA DE MISTRAL -MISTRAL'S DAUGHTER : (A/F SPA 22). 1989. READ BY: Emma Vargo. Story of three women passionately in love with the same man, a Parisian artist.

S-148

DE MADARIAGA, SALVADORE. HEART OF GREENSTONE (A/F SPA 27). 1992. READ BY: Emma Vargo. Set in preColombian Mexico City, Heart of Greenstone details the lives of the ancient Aztec people, both the commoners and the upper classes. Aztec and upper class Spanish cultures collide to form the "New Spain," now called Mexico, combining Spanish heritage and ancient native Mexican traditions.

S-150

MACDONALD, ROSS. THE WAY SOME PEOPLE DIE (A/F SPA 09). 1993. READ BY: Emma Vargo. A detective story featuring the detective Lew Archer. A woman gives Archer $50 to find her missing daughter, then a mob boss gives him a great deal more to find the man she is married to. He ends up traveling up and down California in search of answers.